

Crosskeys Media®

Crosskeys Media is a group of highly accomplished filmmakers with a long history of creating award-winning theatrical films, television programs, documentaries and non-broadcast videos. Crosskeys Media is the producer of Remaking American Medicine™...Health Care for the 21st Century.

Executive Producer/Series Producer/Writer Frank Christopher is an award-winning producer, director, writer, and editor who has been making documentaries since 1970. Christopher's documentaries have covered a wide range of subjects for PBS. He has also produced non-broadcast projects on such topics as the examination of family planning and primary health care programs in Africa and the benefits of Special Olympics to people living in the inner cities of the United States.

Co-Executive Producer/Series Producer/Writer Matthew Eisen has produced and written a wide variety of programs, including a network television movie, primetime documentaries, educational series, public affairs reports, interactive satellite training seminars and live television and radio simulcasts. Eisen's programs on such health care topics as AIDS, drug abuse during pregnancy, prenatal care and child abuse have received extensive distribution and have been recognized with numerous awards.

Series Producer/Writer Marc Shaffer has produced PBS films and network news programs for two decades. His work has explored such pressing social issues as health care, corporate accountability, government integrity, criminal justice reform and race relations. Shaffer's credits include Critical Condition, an Emmy-nominated documentary series on American health care. Shaffer is the recipient of many awards and honors, including a health care media fellowship from the Henry J. Kaiser Family Foundation.

Associate Producer Janet Saidi is a writer and producer who has covered arts and culture for the Christian Science Monitor and the Los Angeles Times. She has edited alternative community papers such as San Diego's Uptown Newsmagazine and the Gay & Lesbian Times. Saidi spent three years as a co-producer and guest host for the public-radio arts program, The Lounge.

Associate Producer Jason Cohn is a producer and writer based in the San Francisco Bay area. He has produced programs for PBS Frontline World in Romania and Japan and worked on numerous other PBS programs, as well as producing reports for public radio. He was the writer of Ending AIDS: The Search for a Vaccine, which aired nationally on PBS in December 2005.
